Realm: New Database for the Church - We need you!

We have started using a new software program for church ministry. It’s called Realm, and we need you to accept the email invitation.

With this software, you can sign up to volunteer, join a group, register to attend an event, purchase tickets, give online, and contact others in the church. It’s a great way to get in touch with your sisters and brothers in the church; we need you to log in to make this functional.

It also improves our reporting and communication, including the ability to see and print your giving history whenever you log in.

You have received an email invitation-- please accept it! It has the subject line Wesley United Methodist Church: Remember to Join our Online Community! Please log in, and then make sure all of your contact information is current, and indicate if you want others to have access to it.

We have also created a video so you can see the steps for doing this.

Holy Week and Easter

This year, our Holy Week and Easter services will be especially welcomed after the pandemic kept us from fully experiencing them last year.

Maundy Thursday worship will be at 7:30 pm in the Sanctuary. Together with Whatcoat UMC, we will share in worship through drama, music, and communion. This will be both in the Sanctuary and online.

Good Friday will begin at noon on April 2nd, at Holy Cross. Our Ecumenical Way of the Cross Walk will include all outdoor worship. We will walk together and pause for prayer at churches and other locations along the way. We will conclude at Mt. Zion AME on Queen Street. If you want to join us simply for the beginning, or meet us when we pray in front of Wesley, you are invited to do so.

Easter Sunday worship at 9:45 am will be on the Legislative Mall. We will be setting up at the end nearest the Legislative Hall. Please bring your own chair, invite a friend, wear masks, and maintain distance. Our choir will be singing masked and distanced. Josh will be singing unmasked and distanced. You may also park along the Legislative Mall and tune into 88.1 FM. If it rains, we will have indoor worship, and our rain date for outdoor Easter worship will be the following Sunday. After worship, the Easter Bunny, cardboard edition, will be available for picture taking. Family Life Committee is also providing goody bags for the children, replacing the Egg Hunt.
We need your help for Easter worship:

Saturday, April 3rd at 3:00 pm at the church, to begin moving and loading equipment

Sunday, April 4th at 8:00 am, to transport and set up

Sunday after worship to take down, transport, and put away.

Ushers and greeters

We will not be doing temperature checks for this outdoor service

CAN YOU BELIEVE IT...?
By: Anthony Falkowski, Director of Nurturing, Visitation, & Witnessing

Two days after Easter on April 6th this year, I will have my first anniversary here at Wesley as your Director of Nurturing, Visitation and Witness. And oddly enough, I have spoken to almost all of you, but not in person. And sadly, there were all those who passed that I will never meet on this earth and that the rest of you were not able to be with to say goodbye.

We have missed worshipping together in our beautiful Sanctuary: Baptisms, confirmations, memorial services, holidays, raising our voices together in song, and the wonderful fellowship that all of these events allow us to share.

Fortunately that’s about to change. We are beginning to open up our beloved church building for you to come into again. It’s exciting! For me it’s almost like just starting my work here anew.

However, I have to tell you that I’ve had some of the best phone visits with so many of you. We shared our daily lives with each passing day, discovering the importance of getting to know each other as best as we were able. I honestly feel like I know so many of you more than I would have thought to be possible.

We have a wonderful church family. It has certainly been a long year. It will be good to be together again. How fitting it should be at this time of the year. We will soon be celebrating a truly magnificent Easter season. And we will all rejoice once again when we say:

Christ has Risen. Christ has Risen, indeed!

The Five Essential Practices for the Christian Life
By: Donna W. Josefowski

During Lent, we have been using The Walk: Five Essential Practices for the Christian Life by Adam Hamilton to learn and grow in our faith. These five areas were Worship/Prayer, Study, Serving, Giving/Gratitude, and Bearing Witness to Our Faith. Each section of this article is tied into these five areas.

Worship
Virtual and In-Person Attendance

Have you wondered … how many people watch our service online? Did you know that the United Methodist Church counts online attendance as well as in-person worship now? There is a common formula for tracking how long a video is watched, how long the service is, times another figure. We know not everyone can join us online, so numbers may be a bit lower than normal. On our first Sunday back in the Sanctuary, our attendance between in-person, Zoom, Facebook, and YouTube was approximately 160 people. We think that with in-person attendance resuming, it will start to increase as well. We are glad to be back, but are also thankful for online worship as an option! Thanks to our AV team for making this happen each and every week!

Study
Lots of Opportunities to Study

These past few months, we have had a lot of online opportunities for study. Some of these include:
- Lenten Study following The Walk with Adam Hamilton
- Anti-Racist Book Study combined with Whatcoat UMC and other groups of faith
- Women’s Bible Study at Wesley led by Diane Boyce
- Lay Servant Classes
- Contemplative Prayer Group
- Women’s Circles

Serving
Sanctuary Servants Needed!

We are looking for Sanctuary Servants. If you can serve once a quarter even, this would be wonderful. Please consider serving during worship.

Ushers and Guides - What does an Usher and Guide do? An usher serves a very important role by creating a welcoming environment and setting the tone for everyone’s personal experience. Please use this link (or call the church office) to volunteer. https://signup.com/go/PWbRtNz

Check-In Volunteers - What does a check-in volunteer do? They make sure our guests have their temperature taken, sign in, and look over the questions. Please use this link (or call the church office) to volunteer. https://signup.com/go/kPQdsgTF

Giving (Gratitude)
It Feels So Be Good To Be Home!

I was in a store the other day and saw this sign which reads “It Feels So Good To Be Home” and it just hit me .. that is exactly how it felt when we stepped back into the Sanctuary again the first time after many months. Even though we had returned for a brief period of time a while ago, it didn’t feel the same, but this time, it did .. well almost. Except for the separation, masks, check-in process, but it still was a good feeling to be back “home” and see our family members. Welcome Home Wesley Church Family! I am grateful to see so many of my friends again in person. We have missed you!

Bearing Witness to Our Faith

How can you embody Christ’s desire and action to seek out and witness to all people? Consider inviting someone you know to join you in worship at Wesley – either online or in-person or to a study group. We welcome all!

Next Steps for Reopening
By: Larry Josefowski, Certified Lay Minister

Our prayers have been answered, as the pandemic seems to be lifting from our world. We are not out of the woods yet, as variants of the virus may still cause issues with those who have not yet had the virus or who have not been inoculated, but the numbers of those who are safe have increased dramatically over the last couple of months.

As we look forward, there is a desire to return to some semblance of normal, and we are committed to doing this in a safe manner. Our demographics played a big part in our standards of shutting down, but it may begin to work in our favor as many congregants have taken advantage of the opportunity to get vaccinated.

We are considering having some small in-person events, such as committee meetings, after Easter, with the goal of getting most of our committees to meet in person or in a hybrid mode before summer. This pandemic may well change the way we do meetings; it has been a blessing to some, as they can now attend despite personal limitations. We are also looking at when it would be safe (and in what way) we could do a fellowship hour, or adding back additional services. Please keep watching Facebook, our web site, and the weekly bulletin for more information.
Christian Education
By: Joe Young, Director of Youth & Children’s Ministry

It really does take a village to raise kids to become productive adults. There is no replacement for your role as the primary faith trainer in your home. Studies have shown that surrounding your kids with like-minded, caring adults is deeply important.

As parents, we have a responsibility to provide oversight for our kids regarding who they hang out with and when they hang out. We schedule preschool play dates and park meet ups so our kids can hang with their friends, but how often do we consider which adults we want our kids to be around? As you think of being intentional about other adults in your kids’ lives, here are four types of adults who can influence your kids in a positive way.

The Dreamer
Dreamers can open your kid’s eyes to things they may not see. I have a friend who is currently an assistant coach in the NBA. As I watched him from afar, I knew he had dreamed of coaching in the NBA and watching his dream come true has inspired me. When we provide our kids opportunities to be around adult dreamers, it teaches them to dream and challenges them to think about their future in new and exciting ways. The balance here is to let them dream, but not be consumed by something that they may never achieve. Placing them around adults who have worked hard and seen their dreams come true is a powerful tool.

List two adults that you know are dreamers:
1.) _______________________________________      2.) _______________________________________

On a scale 1-10, are you a dreamer? 1--------5--------10

The Fixer
Having friends that can fix things has two benefits: one, they can help you fix what’s broken, and two, they can help your kids learn new skills. Find a fixer that is patient enough to not only help you, but also to teach your kids at the same time. To this day, I remember how to trim hedges because one of my dad’s friends once asked me to help him with some landscaping. He patiently showed me how to shape hedges like a pro. Surround your kids with people who are skilled and willing to share their skills.

List two adults that you know are fixers:
1.) _______________________________________      2.) _______________________________________

On a scale 1-10, are you a fixer? 1--------5--------10

The Encourager
I often find myself intentionally encouraging my friends’ kids. As an encourager, I genuinely want to affirm great things I see in others, especially in my kids and their friends. It is fun to brag on how awesome kids are in front of their parents. One day while my kids were playing at the park, a few of the boys were not getting along and I watched one of them restore peace between them. I went over to the peacemaking boy and encouraged him for his great work in resolving the conflict. Then, I shared with his dad about his ability to help everyone get along. Both he and his dad were encouraged. I certainly want to surround my kids with encouraging adults that see the things in them that I may miss.

1.) _______________________________________      2.) _______________________________________

On a scale 1-10, are you a encourager? 1--------5--------10

The Storyteller

Typically, the storyteller is an adult that is a little older and more experienced in life. Storytelling is one of the most powerful ways we share life together and pass on a legacy. I have made it a point to ask that all of my kids' grandparents and “church” grandparents share their stories of past experiences. It is a joy to hear my kids retell the stories they’ve heard from long ago and how things used to be. This gives them a wider perspective of the world and an appreciation for what they have. An easy win would be to bring your kids to a senior adult event and have them sit and eat lunch with a table of wise adults full of stories.

List two adults that you know are storytellers:

1.) _______________________________________      2.) _______________________________________

On a scale 1-10, are you a storyteller?  1 ----  5 ----  10

Theme for 2021 is Rocky Railway! Climb aboard for mountains of fun at Rocky Railway! On this faith-filled adventure, kids discover that trusting Jesus pulls them through life’s ups and downs.
The Missions Committee continues to coordinate our church’s support to many local, domestic, and international missions. In 2021 our church will provide support to nearly 20 organizations (many of them right here in Dover) with our time, labor, and financial gifts.

The Missions Committee will hold its second meeting of 2021 on Tuesday April 13th, 2021 at 7:00 pm and we will be discussing the following issues:

- Status of the Dover Interfaith Mission for Housing (DIMH).
- Status of resuming the Second Saturday meal with food service at the WUMC Portico. Anyone interested in preparing meals for DIMH can get information by emailing missions@wesleyumc-dover.com.
- Revisions to existing endowment guidelines.
- Review of the surveys that will be sent to the mission aid recipients asking them to update their current needs and what they plan to do with funds received. The Missions Committee is always open to suggestions for missions to support, alternate funding sources and/or redistribution of funding depending on recipient organization needs.
- There may be an opportunity for up five members to participate in a 2021 Habitat for Humanity build on April 17, 2021. The work may only be “outside work.” Please see the weekly bulletins for more information as it becomes available.
- The Student Ministry Center (SMC) may be utilized to house a Volunteers in Mission (VIM) team this fall with participants who aspire to assist mobile home owners in need with repairs. Should this materialize, volunteers to help VIM teams with their local needs, kitchen usage, welcoming meal prep, local groceries, etc., will be needed.
- The Capital School District (CSD) request for assistance from the faith community with families that have exhausted all other assistance resources. We have learned that there are 200 families in need of assistance including 60 families that suffer from chronic homelessness. According to CSD local churches donate in the range of $350 to $2000 toward this cause. The Missions Committee will be discussing ways in which we may be able to assist with this request.
- Outreach by Missions to all WUMC Committees regarding mission resource opportunities.

If you have suggestions on how to best utilize Mission Committee resources, please don’t hesitate to email your thoughts to missions@wesleyumc-dover.com.

For ways you can help with these and other missions, please contact the mission Co-chairs at missions@wesleyumc-dover.com.
2021 Graduates

In order for the church to recognize those students who will be graduating from high school, a technical school or college, please call the church office at 678-9626 or email: mdryda@wesleyumc-dover.com to submit the student’s name, the school or college they are presently attending and any type of degree that they have achieved, along with their parents’ names.

The deadline is May 15th, 2021. We’d also like to know future plans if appropriate. Thanks!

Express Yourself Through Music
By: Becky Davis, Director of Music

Summertime is an excellent time to express your love of God and Wesley Church with your music. During the summer months of June through August, the Music Department is seeking out anyone who wishes to sing a solo or duet as special music for 9:45 am church services. As Wesley Church is now holding services in person in the Sanctuary, you will be asked to sing a hymn or other spiritual song with Robert Lee Adams, our organist/accompanist. Robert Lee will make himself available for rehearsals to make sure you are confident and ready. You will be eighteen feet from everyone else as you sing, for safety. Masks are encouraged as well. If you are interested in serving in this way, please contact Music Director, Becky Davis, at becky@wesleyumc-dover.com. Come join the fun!

Women’s History Month at Wesley UMC
By: Becky Davis, Director of Music

March is Women’s History Month. Women are usually too busy to celebrate this wonderful month. However, in the Wesley UMC Music Department, we will celebrate in the very best way, highlighting women singers, women composers and women lyricists.

On March 7th, we of Wesley Church enjoyed the Youth Bell Choir ringing, A Joyful Peal, composed by Patricia Hurlbutt. Since the leader of that group, Pat Root, is a woman too, the music was not only written by a woman, but interpreted, taught and led by a woman.

On March 21st, the Special Music was Kristen Zeman singing Blessed Assurance, the lyrics written in 1873 by blind hymn writer, Fanny Crosby to the music written in 1873 by Phoebe Knapp. Pat Root will accompany Kristen on the piano.

On March 28th, Palm Sunday, Michele Dryda sang Christ Jesus, On Sunday You Rode into Town. This hymn, with newly written lyrics by Carolyn Winfrey Gillette, a hymn writer and Presbyterian pastor serving in Philadelphia, is sung to the melody of Immortal, Invisible God Only Wise.

It is with much joy and gratitude to God for providing so many of our Wesley women with the holy gift of music. We celebrate all women during March and encourage each to use all her differing and assorted talents and gifts to glorify God!
Family Life

As Spring appears so does Family Life! We are excited to announce two events that we are planning.

Our next event will be the Annual Easter Event. While it will be somewhat modified to ensure everyone’s safety. We will have an Easter Eggstravaganza immediately following the Easter Worship Service on Legislative Mall, beginning at approximately 11:15 am. We will have Easter eggs, gifts and the opportunity for you to take photos with the Easter Bunny below.

We hope to see you there! Any Questions, please call the church office at 302-678-9626.

Family Life is looking forward to continuing our Drive-In Movie Nights and more information will be coming forth on those.
March has been another great month at Wesley Preschool/Playcare! Under the leadership of Oveta Fullman, Wesley Church’s dynamic and creative Preschool/Playcare Director, two special activities occurred this month.

March began with a Dr. Seuss event that had outstanding participation from families, teachers, and children. Parents helped their children dress from characters in the Dr. Seuss books, building school spirit.

The other March special event was “Rock Your Socks,” supporting awareness of World Autism Day on March 21st. The activities during these special events extend children’s learning in fun and memorable ways and enhance collaboration between families and the Preschool.

Once again, the Preschool/Playcare Board thanks Oveta Fullman for her “prudent and decisive” leadership in protecting the health of Preschool/Playcare children, families, teachers, and staff during this year of COVID-19. The Board is grateful for her leadership.

Please note: Wesley Preschool/Playcare will be closed April 2nd for Good Friday and April 5th for Easter Monday.

Also in April, Spring Portraits will be taken April 13th through 16th.

This spring a transition begins, as Kate Weiss, Wesley Preschool/Playcare’s dedicated and hard-working administrative assistant will retire, after 28 years, on June 30th. Kate worked for nine years as a teacher’s assistant before becoming the administrative assistant in 2002.

Kate’s warm, friendly, helpful, and smiling presence have blessed all of us at Wesley Preschool/Playcare. We are grateful for Kate’s faithful service, and we wish her happiness and good health in her retirement. Thank you, Kate! Well done!
La Caminante
Message From Deacon Carlos Reyes-Rodrigues

Hello Wesley family!

May God continue providing you and yours with strength, patience, and love as we go through the consequences of this biological and social pandemic.

I am given the opportunity to address you to say goodbye as well as expressing my gratitude. You may have heard that on March 1st I started a new appointment. I have transitioned from being the Coordinator of Hispanic-Latino Ministry in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference to serve at the National Justice for our Neighbors (NJFON), located in Annandale, VA.

NJFON is a United Methodist Immigration Ministry that resources 20 sites in the United States to provides legal assistance to immigrants and refugees at low cost or pro-bono. My new position is Racial Equity and Community Engagement Manager, through which I will assist the sites to become an antiracist organization centering voices of immigrant communities and People of Color.

I am simultaneously thankful for and overwhelmed by this new role on ministry that will en-rich the calling to fight for while co-building a realm with God where justice and peace prevail. I hope that such calling helps to rebuke the toxic and unjust power dynamics of white supremacy and xenophobic sentiments that are infiltrated in all of us to ultimately be redeemed on a true beloved and diverse community.

I am thankful with you, Wesley, for the knowledge and experience I was able to absorb through the relationships and leadership roles offered and trusted. I still remember that Summer of 2014 when the arms of Pastor Amy Yarnall and her family received my wife and me kindly without hesitation, allowing us to get intrigued about the community of faith she was leading. A woman and family who opened the doors of their house to strangers in that way set the tone for me to serve with curiosity, love, and constant surprise.

Wesley UMC opened its doors, too, to serve as a sacred hub where I was able to identify and develop ministerial skills in my process of ordination as a candidate in the Deacon track. It was through your interactions, confirmations, questions, and rejections that I was able to discern, give shape and clearly express the meaning of my faith in God. Many of you opened your hearts sharing your testimonies and love, trusting that God will provide us with guidance to then embark in ministerial adventures aspiring to reflect the Light of mercy and love.

La Caminante was the channel through which I could see God’s manifestation shining its brightest among us. Your support, prayers, and contributions were important forces of encouragement from the beginning. Wesley’s music department set the first stone by offering their talents and gifts in a concert that built the new vision. Four families offered to prepare one meal a month to open La Caminante gathering around the table: a bilingual table, a multigenerational table, multinational table, a holy communal table.

Embracing Stewardship

Dear Wesley members and friends,

Even though the groundhog saw his shadow and our weather currently is a bit dismal we are focusing on optimism and the promise of more opportunities to continue our stewardship focus on sharing our gifts of our time and our talents to serve others and support the many missions at Wesley UM Church! Be creative…that is certainly one thing we have learned in 2020! Hopefully many of us have been able to navigate the rigors of obtaining Covid-19 vaccines for our respective phase of distribution. As more immunizations occur we will be able to move about more safely with restrictions of course. As good stewards of God’s gifts to each of us, let’s be focusing on ways we can share God’s love with others! No act of sharing our gifts with others goes unappreciated. Thank you for supporting Wesley’s financial phase of the 2021 Stewardship Campaign while also realizing that good stewardship of all our gifts of time, talents and resources is always ongoing!

Blessings,
Jeanie DeLeo
Member of the Stewardship Committee
The Staff and Lay Servants of Wesley Church
By: Becky Davis, Director of Music

It has officially been a whole year since the COVID pandemic hit our world. With little knowledge of the COVID virus, and much Divine Guidance, our church changed to virtual worship in one week, last March, so our people didn’t have to sit at home on Sunday mornings and worry.

Our strong and spiritual pastor, Pastor Amy, saw to it that each staff member, and lay leader had an assignment that would make it possible for all our congregants and other attendees to go to church, virtually. I say a hearty “Thank You!” to Pastor Amy and these stalwart and determined servants of Christ. As we met at staff meetings each and every week of the year, these people shared harrowing stories of life during the pandemic. However, no matter what family or personal hardships they experienced, they always provided an absorbent and caring shoulder to cry on, technical help with zoom calls or virtual worship or a personal phone call to someone suffering, at all hours of the day and night; all done with a consistent team spirit. Indeed, our group was tested in every way, as all people were. God was with us, anointing our everyday efforts and helping our church to stay connected to Him and each other in new and important ways.

Finally, a very special THANK YOU from the Music Department to Kristen Zeman and Sara and John Damron for their unending efforts to project all of our music onto the screen every Sunday, for an entire year, so we of Wesley Church might be ministered to through our musicians and our God. Well done, good and faithful servants.

Sunday, March 21, 2021 marked the reopening of the Wesley Music Department as the attendees of Wesley Church listened to soloists as they shared music with us in person in the Sanctuary. We of Wesley Church will finally hear the beautiful music we have come to expect from our singers. Thank you, God!
